Mid week sailing times change with the end of daylight sailing on the weekend of 3 April.

- Weekend sailing continues through April as usual at 10am and 1pm most weekend days - although some Saturdays are race days only - check the detailed calendar on the Allsail website.
- There is no Monday club sailing during the off season but for something new Allsail will be competing in selected Wednesday afternoon RPAYC races - subject to demand. Crews leave the wharf at 1pm for a 2pm start - and we're back at the Alfreds after the race for drinks and prizegiving.
