

Welcome to the July issue of Allsail's e-newsletter.

Well winter is well and truly here – but just because the weather has changed it's no reason to stop sailing. Pittwater in winter is beautiful - less crowded, more steady and predictable breezes and not too hot in the sun. Add an extra layer and it's usually just warm and pleasant.

Most of our Allsailers who travelled to the northern summer for Allsail flotilla sailing adventures in Greece and Canada are back home now with many stories to tell about their fantastic adventures. Check out the photos of both cruises on Allsail's Facebook page - Allsail Yachting - and there are a few samples below.

In this Issue:

- 🚩 Special Deals at the Sydney International Boatshow – 2 to 6 August
- 🚩 Club sailing, racing and training schedule through to September
- 🚩 Allsailers Overseas – review of the Greece and Canada sailing adventures and 2019 previewed

Allsailers Overseas for the Northern Summer

Our Allsail adventurers had a fabulous time on both our Greece and Canada cruises just completed.

Once again we were blessed with remarkable fine weather at each location with Greece a mild 26-30 each day and surprisingly warm also in Canada with 20-28 most days – and nice night time temperatures for sleeping on our yachts. And by going early June the crowds had not yet arrived.
